

Brand New Instagram Tour of Greece Takes Travellers to the Most Instagrammed Destinations for a Professional Photoshoot

A brand-new island-hopping trip by Unforgettable Greece offers travellers the opportunity to visit some of Greece's most Instagrammable spots and flaunt their stuff on an exclusive photoshoot with a professional photographer.

The Greece Instagrammable Destinations Tour takes guests on a luxurious tour of the Greek islands of Crete, Santorini and Mykonos, visiting some of the most beautiful areas of the country and experiencing the best each have to offer.

In Santorini, one of the most Instagrammed places in the world, travellers will embark on a private photoshoot to ensure they have plenty of memories of their trip to add to their Instagram. Based in the whitewashed villages that the island is best known for, guests will soak in the region's charming atmosphere and obvious beauty.

Accompanied by a professional photographer and makeup artist, travellers will be made to feel like a celebrity and pampered to ensure they get the best shots possible on this once-in-a-lifetime trip. The trip includes a choice of locally produced designer dresses to borrow and pose in against spectacular backdrops and unforgettable caldera views.

The 10-day tour will explore the most insta-worthy spots in Greece to ensure guests are populating their Instagram with the best snaps possible. One of these places is the Acropolis at the heart of ancient Athens. Its white stone temples are visible from almost anywhere in the city and are one of the most distinctive places in the entire country. The UNESCO listed heritage site offers plenty of photo opportunities whether that's posing in front of the beautiful structure or taking a panoramic shot of the ancient building from afar.

The island of Mykonos also has ample photo chances including the most photographed church in the Cyclades, the Church of Panagia Paraportiani. This beautiful whitewashed church is actually five separate churches which are joined together and is famous for its unique architecture and absence of external decoration. The muted colours make the perfect backdrop for influencers in brightly coloured dresses to make their feed pop.

Amongst other activities, travellers will enjoy a day at Balos Beach, one of the most photographed and most stunning in the whole of Crete. The beach stretches across the coastline with white and pink-hued sand giving it an otherworldly feel. Once a holiday haven by Prince Charles and Princess Diana, Balos Beach offers great Instagram occasions that will have people raking in the likes.

The new Instagrammable Destinations Tour is a great way for avid influencers to visit the most Instagrammed locations in Greece and experience an exclusive photoshoot to spice up their social media while exploring the beautiful country.

The Greece Instagrammable Destinations Tour costs from £2662pp with 9 nights' luxury accommodation and internal flights and sea transfers.